Topic Overview: The Kessler Foundation/ National Organization on Disability 2010 Survey of Employment of People with Disabilities conducted by Harris Interactive marks the third effort by Harris since 1986 to determine current attitudes of corporate employers toward employees with disabilities. On the twentieth anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act, Kessler and NOD commissioned this new research to understand current corporate diversity and disability policies and program; identify what steps employers have been taking toward recruiting, training and retaining people with disabilities, as well as the barriers they experience; and gauge employers’ perception of the impact of the ADA.

Speakers: Roger DeRose, President and CEO, Kessler Foundation
Carl Glazer, President, National Organization on Disability
Meg O’Connel, Director, Corporate Programs, National Organization on Disability
Humphrey Taylor, Chairman, Harris Poll
